"And the secret words are- Marx Brother," drew Blithe Lakin.

Mr. Mac and Mr. Stewart discover "The Fountain of Youth."

W. Foon captures Mr. Stewart in an upward glance.

Lahser High School art students have continued to uphold the fine tradition of excelling in Scholastic and Regional High School Art competitions. The art students in all classes are encouraged to create, develop, and build a portfolio. A portfolio consists of 8 major pieces that the student has done in his three years of high school. Hopefully, students have completed 35 to 40 major drawings. These pieces will be used to enable them to be accepted in major art schools and universities throughout the country.

GYM IS WHERE STUDENTS GET PHYSICAL

"Gimme a little kiss, Gracey," growls Ernie.

Mrs. Abbot enjoys her first year here.

"It is the though-life that pollutes. For from within, out of men's hearts, come evil thoughts of lust, theft, murder, adultery, wanting what belongs to others, wickedness, deceit, lewdness, envy, slander, pride, and all other folly. All thesevile things come from within; they are what pollute you and make you unfit for God." (Mark 7:20-23)

BENOUNI, MOJAN

First of all give me one of those hands. That is right now I can talk to you and I can tell you exactly what I want to say. Of course you remember all of these things. Every Saturday night we was going to that place to see who is there and who is not, and offer that use the phones and call who ever we want to and talk to them for a long time. I want to walk with you again and talk to you. I'm ticklish in a special place and you also. I hope noone touch it never. Don't you hope so. Sure... You are going to win the game that you were playing but I think it's a dangeres game that you are doing and it depend on a lot of things and none of you know what is goin on. I feel sorry for you.

Thank you for writing a lot of things that is going on over there about all of those special friends, and where are they right now and what they are doing. I'm sure that you will try to do what ever you promise me, but try to try more. 1,2,3,4.

While other senior directories are aimed at a select few individuals, this one is directed to everyone I know, and to all of you others who I don't know. We all make the mistake of not getting to know someone because we are afraid we will get put down in the process. Once you overcome that fear of getting hurt though, you end up gaining much more than ever was lost. So take a few chances.

End of Sermon.

W'HAT IS A Senior Directory, anyway& Nobody ever tells me what's going on around here. Am I supposed to crib something from National Lampoon, or what? Should I tell a stupid joke& Harangue a teacher (and have it edited)? Write a poem about Mr. Tamoor? Come on, dudes, get with it. Let's be a little more specific next time.

GILBERT, DAN

Tech Crew! Tech Crew! What a Wrecking Crew! If we follow all the rules nothing would get done. We gave them the light that made them shine. Open Lunch and Newspaper too, that makes Double Lunch. All the fooling around, all the fun, all the work that never got done. The teacher said to me without a smile, "Son you'll never be anything worthwhile". "That's okay" I replied, "I went to Lahser High School".

"I would not exchange the sorrows of my heart for the joys of the multitude. And I would not have the tears that sadness makes to flow from my every part turn into laughter. I would that my live remain a tear and a smile...A tear to unite me with those of broken heart; a smile to be a sign of my joy in existence."

The obstacles of life began here, problems and stress were forever near,

Though everyday meant more laughs, tensions or sorrow, it was no doubt a preparation for tomorrow,

The thoughts of all, helped me find the destiny of life that will be mine,

I know this poem smells, but I have one last thing to tell, As the wind guides the "Flying Mandarin" through time, no rhyme can say any better that Lahser is the best preparation for what is ahead.

YOCCA, DAVID

What does one say to remember one's high school years? Sure, I could write about all of my wild drug-related experiences, but I have neither the space nor the memory for that. No, I just want to remember the people who made my High school years worthwhile: Carol, I love you forever, Eric, how am I going to keep you out of trouble(and vice-versa)?, Pat, a great and generous guy, Dave & Julie, stay the way you are, Sue & Big Lar, If I'm neglecting anyone else, and I know I am, it's because I'm sitting on the can writing this stupid directory the day it's due and I can't think. Special mention to my brother, Brad.

First new truck of the 80's... TOUGH 1980 FORD.

Tough Ford Trucks set the pace for the 80's. New aerodynamically designed pickups. With exclusive Twin-I-Beam front suspension. New 4x4's and Broncos—the only American-built 4WD trucks with Twin-Traction Beam independent front suspension. Plus vans with out-front engine design for more move-around room inside.

New '80 Fords set the pace in gas mileage ratings, too.

Free Wheeling Bronco.

Offers pinstripes or new optional tricolor tape stripes and more. Low-mount western mirrors, styled steel wheels and RWL tires optional.
